This was the first Damron Guide that I've bought in about 10 years. I was honestly a bit disappointed. The guide is about half the size of what it used to be. I realize that it must be very hard to keep up to date on the bars, but I travel and know this is out of date. Damron still includes "cruise areas" which are basically the city parks or a truck stop. Who actually hangs out in parks for hooking up anymore? Grindr pretty much eliminated the need to risk that. And they also list the adult book stores and porn outlets. It would be nice to see Damron modernize a bit. If you travel a lot this might be a nice quick reference, but you can find everything in here with a quick Google search. I do think it's fun to flip through cities and see what kind of bar scene they offer, but if you don't like gay bars then this will essentially be useless to you.

If you are looking for an in depth description and pictures of places this is the WRONG book, look for something else. You'd probably find more details and more fun information on a LGBT magazine or website. I wouldn't have spent the money if I had seen it in a bookstore. It would be better described as a POCKET quick reference than an actual TRAVEL GUIDE.

It's much thinner than years past. Not sure it's fully tracking everything like it used to. For years it was superior to Spartacus but it now seems Spartacus is the definitive guide.

This was a gift to a friend. What a reviewed was very satisfactory. Thank you.
