After getting my husband several other books along these lines I came across this one. He has jokingly referred to our infant as a c*ckblock lately so I thought he'd get a good laugh out of it. We could not stop laughing and have been sharing this book with everyone we know. Worth every cent - this may be more true than "You Have to Sleep" or "You Have to Eat". Will be Daddy's favorite book for awhile.

A little spendy for a book of this size, feel very much like a thin children's book but this was a very entertaining read, all our guests who come over all agree that it is really funny and very accurate.

Hilarious book! Received in the mail yesterday and can't stop giggling. Would make a great Father's Day gift from wife or girlfriend.

This is a hilarious book! I bought it for new parents, and they got a kick out of it!

Not as good as some of the other ADULT children's books but it's pretty funny. I wish that there were more rhyming. I am a huge fan of inappropriate stuff so this was definitely on my list of must own books.

Bought this for my husband for Father's Day and it was a crack up! He read it out loud and was laughing out loud! It's a little bit too long though and gets cheesy but super funny gift.

Hilarious! Purchased as a gift for my husband when our second child was born. Everyone who has seen it is planning on purchasing as it is fun, adult humor and brings such light to one issue of having kids! LOVE IT.

My husband LOVED this book. It's very offensive, very funny and perfect if you have that type of sense of humor.
