Customer Reviews

This book gives us useful strategies that we can use for selling crafts online, specifically in Etsy. We both know that becoming a top rated seller on Etsy is not that easy. We need to dedicate our time and our passion. We need to be more innovative and patient, but most importantly, if we want to become a top rated seller on Etsy we do really need successful strategies. Thankfully this book offers the latest strategies that we need in order for our Etsy business to become a success. A list of principles and strategies to have a successful online shop is also included and some tactics and situations that you need to avoid. The step by step guidelines are actually very supportive and easy to understand. Definitely a worthwhile read if you plan to sell on Etsy.

These are basic guides to start setting your account on Etsy and start selling your handmade stuff and start earning.

I always have this heart to sell things online. I have tried this through Facebook pages and it worked for me. This book gave helpful information and a guide to starting the business, also explained what a beginner should know in this area. It gave me some practical techniques and ideas. This I think is one of those books that the value is more than its price. This book is definitely a must have if you're planning to enter the online marketplace.

Informing book! Making money on Etsy is very difficult. You have to know about the strategies of this business. I think this book may help you to learn exactly how to do it. I suggest people whom are interested to make their money larger, buy this book to learn about Etsy business. Really worth recommending!

This book provides some great insights into creating sales success on Etsy. The book provides many helpful tips, strategies, and action plans. I've had troubles with my store and now I understand a lot better about the Etsy community and how to get more traffic to my store and more items seen by the shoppers. I know I will be referring to this as I start getting my shop ready to re-open.

I am looking for good quality sites to promote the products that I am selling as I am selling chess materials right now. It is important to consider on where is the best. I consider Etsy as one of my medium but before engaging, I need to know the pros and cons of it. I am exploring it while reading this book and I think this one is a good one.

This is a great guide to learning on Etsy The book provides an overview of Etsy, how to create a user name and account as well as how to start an Etsy business, what services to sell on Etsy and vital information such as how to collect sales Tax on Etsy Overall this is a great guide especially for persons who are interested in buying and selling on Etsy

This is the fresh way of getting money easily. It contains some benefits and it is very barely to get the way of getting money. Every individual wants it but no concept where to take start. The author tried to open some secrets here. So this book is all about that and especially about the ESTY. It's very good book for such beginners like me to get the method for some extra income, thanks to the author.
