Blood Bound: A Paranormal Romance (Fire & Ice Book 1)

Synopsis

An ice child, her protector, and a century-old prophecy...In a world where monsters and humans live in relative peace.... Snow Bennett just wanted to get away from her overprotective parents. So, she transferred to the high school in the next town. Monster High, isn't an ordinary high school. It's a monster high school, the perfect place for Snow who is human with a little extra. She can control ice. Snow has always wanted to spice up her boring life.....then she met Cait Fallon, the spice to her everything nice. Cait Fallon is a woman with secrets. Secrets, that have ruled her life preventing her from really living. When Snow transfers to her class, Cait is reminded of a promise she made long ago to protect the girl. Can Snow break down the walls Cait has spent centuries building? Or will they both fall victim to an age-old prophecy?

Customer Reviews

This story was marred by uncountable errors, misspellings, poor grammar and phraseology. Some may overlook these errors, but I find them distracting and they take away from my enjoyment of the v story.

I was very pleased with this story and have found a new author to follow. The story was well written and fast paced, the characters are strong (which I love) and the concept of the Monster High School and what it's multi species students can get into is intriguing. If you like paranormal romances I'm sure you'll enjoy this series.

I chose a 3 star rating because it's a bit young adult for my taste. Also, the pairing of the two characters is a bit odd. There were minimal if not any spelling errors. The idea is good. It didn't hold my interest enough to read the sequel. Otherwise, as I said, a little too YA for me.

The only reason this isn't 5 stars is I wish it were longer. The courting piece could have been further developed. But, it sets up beautifully for a sequel. Which I hope is in the works. However, there is a complete ending so no cliffhangers.

This book had a decent storyline, but the horrible editing made it so that I couldn't really settle in and enjoy the story. There were a few other small issues I had, but the editing was definitely the worst. It was free through Kindle Unlimited, so it was OK for what I paid. But, the sequel was only 111 pages and wasn't free. I didn't feel a need to waste my money on it, even though the storyline was good enough that I wondered what might happen next.

Just wasn't Long enough ,was kinda of a little weird at some parts. But overall the book was relatively good .

I really enjoyed reading this book. I like to read the paranormal stories and this was a good one and different from most.
