Customer Reviews

This is a series of short stories and one longer one, chronicling the growing relationship between Lucas and Andrei. It's stunningly romantic with substantial doses of hot sexual encounters. Not enough to overtake the stories though. Lucas and Andrei had agreed to nothing more between them but monogamous sex. Of course, we all knew what was gonna happen! The stories cover a few holidays from fall to almost Christmas. Andrei deals with the process of coming out and Lucas learns to put his work aside more. The Thanksgiving scene is awesome and pretty funny and humorous, with Snow, Rowe, Mel, Ian and Andrei's parents! Fun and sweet and tender, it's a wonderful way to spend more time with the first couple of the series, which is a favorite of mine.

I liked this collection of stories; they were a nice addition to Lucas' and Andrei's story. I would have given it a 5 star if not for the numerous punctuation errors and missing words--the character development was the only thing that prevented a two star review. The books were better in this regard.

I haven't read Shiver, which is the full story of how the two MC's met, but I am definitely going to go back to the beginning of this series. I have to say the way this was written is a great change from how these types of stories go. I love that Lucas's wealthy and take charge character was so smitten with Andrei and not afraid to show it. Definitely cutest couple award for me.

Drake and Elliot continue to bring their fun sexy characters to life with short relationship scenes including the dreaded first Thanksgiving dinner with family. Loved it!

These are lovely little snippets of Lucas and Andrei's deepening relationship. There's hot sex, some romantic times, little glimpses into each guy's heart and hopes and interactions with the rest of the gang. I found the mention of Andrei's parents' love of occasional thirds in their marriage and of his mum's ogling of Snow, a bit sad and irritating, though this was in jest; it all seemed a little desperate with no point, and reminded me of the antics of a certain Nana character in a popular MM series that I no longer read. Still, I enjoyed these, but this book should have come out between books 1 and 2, as it's more of a 1.5 book.

Thank you for such wonderful insights to the characters I fell in love with in Shiver. They've become so real so fast so of course I'm glad there's more time to come to spend with them.
