The Tracker's Destiny Finds Him Again [Rescue For Hire West 6] (Siren Publishing The Bellann Summer ManLove Collection)

Synopsis

[Siren Publishing: The Bellann Summer ManLove Collection: Erotic Alternative Cowboy Romance, M/M, HEA] At eighteen, Rhys Kent ran away from the circus and joined the Army. The night before his bus left for basic training, he met the man of his dreams, fell in love, and had sex for the first time. But by the next morning, he had also been dumped by Joe Beck. Ten years later, their paths collide at Rescue for Hire West, and Rhys wants nothing to do with the man who broke his young, tender, heart. But in life, it's the little gestures of love that matter most to Rhys, and it turns out Joe excels at the little things. At nineteen, Joe Beck had the right intentions, but handled the whole Rhys situation all wrong. Ten years later, life has given him a second chance at love, but will Rhys? The road to happily ever after is paved with candy kisses, jelly beans, milk duds, old dogs, old people, heartache, forgiveness, and this little red sex toy...  A Siren Erotic Romance

Customer Reviews

Loved this story of how Rhys and Joe finally got back together. There were some sad bits too but I won't spoil the story by telling you about that. You will have to read it to find out. Excellent! Highly recommended.

This was so awesome and great I'm sad his dog died but he died a hero and then his pop a died witch made it sad but then all turned it out ok.. And the Doc found two guys that wanted him can't see what happens with that oneWtg Bellann...

I liked that Rhys & Joe found each other again. This is a great book and I do recommend it.

Love this series. These books have the best stories. I hope there are more to follow.
