Asking Shadows To Dance

Synopsis

Nearly one hundred poems come together to form a collection readers have called, 'ominous,' 'highly-charged,' and 'heart-tugging.' Asking Shadows to Dance offers a duet of memories and magic; poems that focus on the metamorphosis of a soul shedding its skin as well as fantasy worlds begging to break free. Within the words, everything is something more; from sorrow to solace and childhood to womanhood. Asking Shadows to Dance is lyrical, authentic, and heartbreakingly-honest. For poetry lovers, it is a collection not to be missed.

My Five Star Review of â œAsking Shadows to Danceâ •Poetry Written by Ashlei HawleyOnly recently I have been reading poetry. This collection is my second and most emotional effecting that I have read. Iâ™ve learned poems are an extension of an authorâ™s emotional state. Authors couldnâ™t bare their feelings any more than they do when writing poetry I believe. This collection covers every emotion from the beginning of the writerâ™s formidable years as a teen up until now. There is darkness in these poems especially in a consecutive sets the further I read. The ebbs and flows of the authorâ™s feelings are akin to that of the moon and the effects on the ocean tides. I felt conflicting emotions of happiness, sadness, anger, disgust, hatred, acceptance, love and faith in one's self. There is hardship, broken spirits, reforging of one's identity and above all hope in life. Love is the end all emotion here I felt and I empathized with the author numerous times. I was brought to tears of joy, anger and sadness but always after every few poems hope in life was restored. There are wedding vows here I believe, Also a young woman's blossoming love as a teen and the heartache only a reader can imagine by such great description. I sensed a author in her young years as a hopeful writer who gradually matured and with that maturity so the content of the poems matured the further into the collection I progressed. These poems affected me deeply and I'm proud and happy to share my vague observations here.

This book is so human and touching. Through the reading, I was able to see a lifeline spun out in different areas of hurt, maturation, love, and heartache. Any poetry lover absolutely needs to have a copy of this book-I can't wait to have a paperback version on my shelf! Well done.

Each and every poem in this book is unique in its own way, utterly beautiful in everyway. This authors way with words is beautiful and I can't wait to read more from thus author.
