Synopsis

For centuries, the Koh-i-Noor diamond has set man against man and king against king. Now part of the British Crown Jewels, the priceless gem is a prize that many have killed to possess. So when the Crown Jewels go on display in Mumbai, security is everyone's principal concern. And yet, on the very day Inspector Chopra visits the exhibition, the diamond is stolen from under his nose. The heist was daring and seemingly impossible. The hunt is on for the culprits. Customer Reviews

I like this series. It is light and entertaining and gives some insights into Indian culture/life. The characters are attractive and dimensional. I sometimes recall scenes and laugh to myself. If you like the Ladies Number One Detective series, you will like this series also. I have recommended to my bookclub.

I thoroughly enjoyed both books in the series and wish that there were more. I feel like I can see the sights and smell the smells of Mumbai. There are stories within the main story that add pathos and emotion. I highly recommend both books in the series.

The adventures continue with Inspector Chopra (Retired) and his delightful elephant companion Ganesh, in solving a mystery involving the Crown Jewels of England this time! I enjoyed this book even more so than the first! May this series continue for a very long time!

Warm and appealing characters in an engrossing adventure which also touches on social and cultural changes in India. The inclusion of a baby elephant as a main character actually works and avoids cloying cuteness

I hope this story goes on and on. The characters are delightful. And the story...well, I just yelled at my family to PLEASE give me 10 more minutes to finish the book! They did and I was well rewarded.
