Columbus Food Truck Cookbook, The (American Palate)

Synopsis

Every food truck in Columbus has a story. Jim Pashovich, godfather of the local scene, honors his Macedonian heritage with his fleet of Pitabilities trucks. After working as a New York City line cook, Catie Randazzo returned to Columbus to open Challah! and wow the hometown crowd with her reimagined Jewish comfort food. Chef Tony Layne of Porâ™Ketta serves up rotisserie-style porcine fare in his tin-roofed truck. Established favorites like Paddy Wagon and Explorers Club pair with the cityâ™s best nightlife venues and breweries to extend their offerings at permanent pop-up kitchens. With insider interviews and over thirty recipes, food authors Tiffany Harelik and Renee Casteel Cook chew their way through the thriving food truck scene of Columbus.

Customer Reviews

This is a great book! It's not a standard run-of-the-mill cookbook. Not only is it filled with amazing recipes but the great stories behind them. You really get a sense of who the truck owner is and how and why they decided to bring their skills to the Columbus market. They even offer some tips for getting started yourself. A must read for everyone and especially Columbus foodies and visitors!

I loved this book. It was so interesting telling the history of the food trucks and also shared some of their best recipes!

I love the concept and there are so many recipes that are fun and pretty easy to make!
