Customer Reviews

SWISH!!! Drat, missed again! And another fly escapes to bother you again. But you can't blame this 1905 invention, the flyswatter. And there are so many other interesting things in this Volume 2 of American Acrostics. Word puzzles, for those who enjoy the solving, are a great pastime, but when you can also learn something from them, what a great bonus.

I have spent many an enjoyable hour relaxing in my Jacuzzi bubble bath working on Cyn Morris's Acrostics. I can recommend these books as fun collections of easy-to-difficult-to-solve puzzles (mostly moderately challenging). Books like these are getting increasingly hard to find. So I heartily suggest that you give these entertaining brainteasers a try.

These puzzles, like the American history volume, contain intriguing quotes, and a nice review of American inventions. Again the puzzles in this volume are challenging and yet doable.

Learn about America's inventions as you have fun solving these acrostic puzzles!
