Since walking through the loss of two of our children during pregnancy, I have read countless books on grief and infant loss. There is something comforting about hearing someone else's story, knowing that they have been through the same heartache as you have, and yet seeing the faithfulness of God displayed so clearly in their lives. "Anchored" not only provides stories of other women who have experienced the loss of a child, but invites the reader to search out the very heart of God as is revealed through His Word. Each chapter is filled with Scripture to reflect on as you allow your heart to be open to how God desires to speak to you and carry you through your sorrow. This is a resource and a ministry that I will continue to give the highest recommendation for. If you or someone you know has experienced pregnancy or infant loss grab a copy of this book. Not only will you be armed with truth to sustain you as you continue to navigate the layers of loss on the road ahead, but as you allow God's Word to pour over every ache of your heart, you will find yourself anchored to the glorious and eternal hope that can only be found in Him!

I am so thankful that Erin wrote this devotional. It has been a really good resource to help me in the loss of our three babies. I am so thankful for people like Erin who take on this kind of project. I cannot imagine that it was easy for her to do, but I am so thankful she obeyed God pushing her. She did a fantastic job. Thank you, Erin.

Got this for a friend when she was going through a difficult time; she stated it was helpful!

A help in time of need. A real blessing for my wife during a hard trial in our life.

I am so thankful that this resource exists!
