Customer Reviews

Kiki Archer's highly anticipated romance novel, "Lost in the Starlight" sets the bar incredibly high for other writers within the lesbian fiction/romance genre. Throughout the book, the reader is invited to feel the awakenings, desires, vulnerability and cosmic, exploding sexual interactions between Honey and Meg. The supporting characters, ranging from Diana Diamond, Liza, Sophia, Jo, beauty crew and of course Svetty and Kunse complete the story. The interactions amongst characters are hilarious and well done to Kiki for nailing the Sokolova accent to a "t". In sum, "Lost in the Starlight" is full of gregarious, genuine and zany characters who you just cannot help but love, but how could we not love the characters... they were created by Kiki. I'd ask the book to marry me, but I think another fabulous reader already popped the question.

Dang Kimi Archer you had my heart beating so fast at the end of another terrific novel. Now I am not going to give anything away because you are going to have to read this for yourself, but believe me you will not be sorry when you do.

Once again Kiki has scored on the Lesbian romance novel charts. I thoroughly enjoyed "Lost in the Starlight". Laugh out moments, enduring characters, outrageous scenarios. A very fun read, as you sit on your deck (porch, couch, whatever) in the sunshine drinking a nice Merlot. Cheers Another winner for Kiki Archer. Great characters and an enjoyable fast paced read. This one is a slightly different style from Kiki's usual offering. But it shows how her writing has grown and improved over the years.
