There's nothing better to send you into a nice, deep sleep than the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. I read this every time I have had a stressful day and Reddit cannot take my mind off the day well enough to let me become comatose. SPOILER! In a discrimination case, Rule 19(a) should not be used by a defendant when trying to bring in a third-party harasser as a necessary party.

Great if you work with the Court system in any capacity!!

This is easy to navigate and useful for civil procedure..
